See the Changing the Guard ceremony (schedule permitting) at Amalienborg Palace, a private residence of the royal family, and pass by Christiansborg Palace, the seat of the Danish parliament. You will also see the charming and colorful old harbor of Nyhavn, among other popular sights, before visiting beautiful Rosenborg Castle, home to the crown jewels. Constructed during the twelfth century, the twin-spired structure is the burial place of more than forty Danish monarchs, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and was the first cathedral to be built from brick—inspiring the spread of brick Gothic architecture throughout northern Europe.
