If there were ever a Garden of Eden, it may have looked something like French Polynesia, and Papeete—the capital of Tahiti—is no exception. A treasure trove of volcanic peaks, black sand beaches, aqua lagoons, and fish-filled reefs; the island of Tahiti is a timeless symbol of natural beauty and inspiring culture.

Disembark Nautica and begin your tour in the vibrant heart of Papeete's downtown, where a lively atmosphere welcomes travelers. Explore the traditional market with a vibrant assortment of fish, fruit, vegetables, and exquisite artisan crafts—an authentic immersion into the local culture. Continuing along the East Coast, view the historical Venus Point and the beautiful coastline's black sand beaches. Stop at the mesmerizing Faarumai waterfalls. Stroll through a bamboo forest leading to the breathtaking Vaimahuta Falls.

Next, enjoy lunch at the Gauguin Restaurant featuring local cuisine with a Polynesian buffet. After lunch, take a leisurely walk through the Spring Garden of Vaipahi and witness a magnificent landscape of tropical flowers, ponds, and trees. Our last stop is the Marae Arahurahu, nestled in a picturesque valley, holds the secrets of ancient times.
