ITINERARY

November 6 Arrive in Istanbul and transfer to the luxurious 5-star Hotel Barcelo. Spend the remainder of the day at leisure.

November 7 Begin your journey with a full-day exploration of Istanbul's rich heritage and breathtaking views. You'll start with an inside visit to Dolmabahce Palace, a stunning example of Ottoman architecture. Next, enjoy a panoramic boat tour along the Bosphorus Strait, offering incredible views of the city's skyline as you sail between two continents. Following this, embark on a tour of Kadikoy, where you'll experience the unique culture of both Europe and Asia in one day. For lunch, indulge in a cultural food-tasting experience, savoring traditional Turkish dishes. The day concludes with a visit to Camlica Hill, which offers panoramic views of Istanbul, perfect for capturing memories of this unforgettable day.

November 8 After breakfast, explore the city's ancient history and remarkable landmarks. Visit the grand Topkapi Palace, once the heart of the Ottoman Empire. Then, take a stroll through the historic Hippodrome Square, where chariot races were held in Byzantine times. Descend into the mysterious Underground Cistern, an ancient water reservoir with an awe-inspiring atmosphere. Midday, you'll enjoy a delightful lunch at an Ottoman restaurant, savoring the flavors of the region. This full-day tour offers a deep dive into Istanbul's glorious past and cultural significance.

November 9 On your final day, begin on a half-day tour that covers some of Istanbul's most iconic sights. Start with a visit to the exterior of the Blue Mosque, an architectural masterpiece adorned with intricate blue tiles. Then, explore the magnificent Hagia Sophia on an inside tour, marveling at its impressive dome and rich history as both a church and a mosque. Finally, wander through the lively Spice Market, where you can browse a vibrant array of spices, sweets, and local products.

As the tour comes to a close, transfer to Vista to embark on your cruise.
