ITINERARY

May 1 Disembark Regatta and begin a half-day guided tour exploring the cultural diversity of Singapore. Wander through the vibrant streets of Little India, where the colors, aromas, and traditions come to life. Visit the Sri Veeramakaliamman Temple, one of Singapore's oldest Hindu temples, adorned with intricate carvings and rich history. Continue to Chinatown, home to bustling markets and the stunning Buddha Tooth Relic Temple, a masterpiece of Tang Dynasty architecture. Enjoy an included lunch before an afternoon at leisure. For those who don't join the group in the Foodie Tour, enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

Optional Lau Pa Sat Foodie Tour Add-on for $129

For those seeking a deeper culinary experience, an optional Lau Pa Sat Foodie Tour is available for $129 per person, offering a taste of Singapore's famous hawker culture.

May 2 Discover Singapore's iconic landmarks on a full-day city tour. Begin at Merlion Park, where the famed half-lion, half-fish statue offers a stunning backdrop of Marina Bay. Continue to Thian Hock Keng Temple, a beautifully preserved Hokkien temple dedicated to the sea goddess Mazu. Stroll through the lush landscapes of the Singapore Botanic Gardens, the country's first UNESCO World Heritage Site, renowned for its exquisite National Orchid Garden. Midday, savor a traditional Peranakan lunch, showcasing the unique blend of Chinese, Malay, and Indonesian flavors that define Singapore's culinary heritage. Conclude the tour with time to explore or relax at your leisure.

May 3 After breakfast, transfer to Singapore (SIN) airport* for your return home.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Travelers should be confident in their ability to walk and stand for up to 2 hours with a total of up to 1 mile per day while keeping a steady pace with a group or tour guide. This tour can involve walking on mostly even terrain and occasionally stairs, some without handrails. Travelers should be able to board a tour coach or bus with minimal assistance.

Cultural Notes: Local customs require covering knees, backs and shoulders when visiting religious sites. No shorts or mini-skirts.
